BATTLE AT A PICNIC

Over a Thousand Men and Women Take Part.

THREE MEN ARE ALREADY DEAD

Twenty Other Persons Fatally Hurt and Over Fifty More Seriously Injured. Knives, Clubs, Chairs and Beer Bottles Used for Weapons—Deputies Sworn in, as Further Trouble Is Expected.

ENGLISH, Ind., July 6.—Startling reports of a desperate riot at Siberia, Perry county, this state, are coming in by telephone and couriers from the scene of the encounter. Dr. William Lomax of White Sulphur Well has just telephoned that a thousand men and women took part in the fight, that three men are dead, four fatally hurt and 50 seriously injured.

The dead are:

Fred Elmer.

William Geise.

Frank Hart.

Those fatally injured are:

Peter Bennett.

Robert Dodge.

Abner Stroud.

Samuel Wilson.

Siberia is but a hamlet of a few dozen straggling houses and a Roman Catholic church, the congregation of which is composed of Germans. They are a simple and inoffensive people, but have been greatly annoyed recently by persons opposed to their religion. Thursday they planned to enjoy a great picnic in the woods surrounding the village. The entire population turned out to attend the picnic and all went smoothly enough until several gangs of disturbers appeared on the scene and began to make trouble.

There was a number of booths on the grounds where intoxicants were served. These were liberally patronized by the intruders, who soon began to insult the Germans and their wives. The priest, who was present, counseled his people to avoid trouble if possible and to pay no attention to the jeers of the half drunken marauders. Mistaking this tolerance for cowardice, the intruders became bolder and soon precipitated a fight, which in a few moments assumed the proportions of a desperate riot, in which everybody took part. Clubs, chairs and beer bottles were brought into play and the peaceful picnic was immediately transformed into a great struggling mass of cursing men and screaming women.

Samuel Wilson, a leader of the outsiders, was armed with a huge knife, which he wielded on every side, stabbing and cutting many persons. He was finally opposed by a sturdy German, who was more than a match for him, until Wilson plunged the knife into his neck. As the man fell back his wife sprang through the crowd and dealt Wilson a terrible blow with a beer bottle, crushing his skull. During the melee one of the intruders kicked a woman about to become a mother, killing her child and fatally injuring her.

It soon became apparent to the attacking party that they would be annihilated if the fight was continued, and after their leader was struck down, they ran hastily through the woods to where their horses were tethered and escaped, leaving three of their number on the ground for dead.

Cots and litters were hastily improvised and the dead and wounded were removed to the church in the village and all the physicians in the neighborhood called upon. Dr. Lomax, a surgeon of White Sulphur Wells, and his two assistants were kept busy all of the night caring for the wounded. Dr. Lomax states that he saw 54 injured and believes that several of them will die. He says the fight began at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and continued for an hour.

A telephone message from White Sulphur Wells, just received, says that at least 20 of the injured will die. A courier from the scene of the battle, who was sent for supplies for the surgeons, states that three persons are dead. Two of them were members of the picnic party, and the other is Wilson, the leader of the rioters.

Nearly all of the rioters are known, although it is certain that in the party there were a number of rough characters from the district lying near the Ohio river. Many of the rioters carried buggy spokes concealed in their sleeves, and used them with terrible effect, sparing neither age nor sex.

The local magistrate has sworn in nearly every man in the community as a deputy to preserve the peace, as it is feared the rioters will secure enforcement and return for the bodies of their comrades, one of whom is dead, and two others probably fatally injured.

Not Yet Decided.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Judge Showalter yesterday entered a formal order affirming the decree of sale of the 18 plots of the whisky trust as petitioned by the reorganization committee. The sale is not yet assured, however, as the Greenhut and Morris interests gave notice of an appeal, and the case will be heard by the United States court of appeals which sits in Chicago next week.

Commits a Murder and Surrenders.

TOPEKA, July 6.—J. D. Ross, foreman of the Mulvane ranch of 4,000 acres, 15 miles west of here, died yesterday from the effects of two gunshot wounds inflicted Thursday by a tenant of the ranch named Richard De Barros. De Barros was an unsatisfactory tenant, and Ross had endeavored by legal means to get rid of him. Thursday it is said Ross ordered De Barros off the place, when the latter fired. Ross is prominently connected here. The murderer gave himself up to the authorities

ENTIRE FAMILY KILLED Six Lives Sacrificed by a Mad Man in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Frederick Hellmann, a well-to-do mason contractor, murdered his wife and four children Thursday night and then killed himself. It was first supposed that Hellmann and his wife and children met death by accident, but it developed at the coroner's inquest yesterday afternoon that the wholesale murder was calmly planned and that the man intended to kill himself and end the existence of the members of his family. The dead man and his victims are:

Frederick Hellmann, aged 37.

Mrs. Ida Hellmann, aged 32.

Fred Hellmann, Jr., aged 11.

Ida Hellmann, aged 10.

William Hellmann, aged 8.

Hedwig Hellmann, the 3-year-old daughter.

The tragedy took place in a little brick cottage at Cornelia and Wood streets. It is supposed the act was that of a mad man, as Hellmann was 10 years ago sunstroke, from which he never completely recovered.

Suspicion was first aroused yesterday morning by the fact that the house in which the Hellmanns lived was tightly closed long after the usual hour for the family to be astir. The mother and married sister of Hellmann, who lived next door, attempted to break into the house but were unable to do so. They finally managed to force an entrance through a window in one of the bedrooms, where the dead bodies of all the family were found. The house was so full of gas that the two women were nearly overcome. It was at once concluded that the deaths had been the result of an accident, and the police when they came adhered to the same opinion.

At the inquest in the afternoon, however, an entirely different complexion was given the affair by Charles, a brother of Hellmann. He produced a letter written by the murderer and suicide late on the previous evening, in which he clearly stated his purpose of killing himself, although he gave no intimation of the fact that he was meditating the deaths of the members of his family. He spoke of the window through which the women had crawled as the only way in which his brother could gain admission to the house, and said that he had left it open for that purpose. The brother had not received the letter until after noon and came directly to the inquest.

The position of the bodies at the time they were found indicated that the two boys and elder girl fought desperately to leave the room after the father had turned on the gas. The mother and baby were lying on the inside of the bed as it in peaceful slumber, but the two boys and the older girl were in different attitudes and the expressions of their faces were those of persons who had struggled hard. The father's hand was firmly placed across the mouth of the older boy and there is an abrasion on the throat of the other lad as though he had been strangled.

FIFTEEN MEN IN A BATTLE.

Three of Them Fatally Wounded and All More or Less Injured.

BERNARDOTE, Ills., July 6.—A number of men were drinking in a beer garden owned by Wilbur Lease and John Myers, when a fight was started about a woman. Knives, revolvers, stones and all kinds of deadly weapons were at once brought into use. A desperate battle took place, in which 15 men took part, and the result is that three of them were fatally wounded.

Wilbur Lease had his throat cut and it is thought he will die. Lester Meyers had both ears bitten off and was otherwise badly used up, he will hardly recover. Myron Kimball, an old citizen of the place, who was watching the battle, was hit by a stray bullet and badly wounded. John Coakley, one of the participants in the battle, was shot, and half a dozen more of those who took part in the melee were carried off the ground suffering from wounds caused by bullets, knives and stones.

Chicago's First Photographer Dead.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Alexander Hesler, who was Chicago's first photographer, died yesterday at an advanced age. Mr. Hesler was a famous daguerreotypist and became prominent in the fifties through his pictures about the vicinity of the present site of Minneapolis. In 1851 he gave a view of the falls at that place to a brother of Charles Sumner, the statesman, who in turn gave it to the poet Longfellow. Some time later he received one of the first copies of "Hiawath" with an autograph letter of thanks for his picture from Longfellow, who declared that the picture had inspired the poem.

Tried to Kill Himself and His Wife.

BROOKLYN, July 6.—Samuel Huckowitz of this city tried to kill his wife and himself yesterday. For some time the couple had not lived happily together. Yesterday they quarreled and the man grasped a carving knife and rushing toward his wife caught her around the neck with his left hand and plunged the knife into her left breast twice. She fell and Huckowitz, thinking he had killed her, pulled the knife across his own throat. Mrs. Huckowitz is not seriously injured. The husband, however, will probably not recover.

Heavy Rainfall in Kansas.

SALINA, Kan., July 6.—Rain fell in torrents here last night, and as a result five washouts are reported west of here, this side of Ellis and another near Manhattan. The westbound express is tied up here indefinitely. An unusually heavy rainfall is reported from all sections. At Beloit six inches fell. Atchison reports the rain of more value to crop, especially to corn, than any which has fallen for several years. Blue Rapids reports bad washouts at Shrader and Florena.

MIDSUMMER TRADE.

Dun's Reports From All Commercial Centers.

BETTER PROSPECTS FOR CROP.

A Marked Increase in Retail Distribution of Products, an Active Demand for Goods and a General Enlargement of the Working Force With Some Advance in Wages—Decrease of Failures.

NEW YORK, July 6.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says:

The midsummer reports from all commercial centers are of especial interest, covering the questions on which the future of business depends. They indicate distinctly better crop prospect than other official or commercial accounts, a marked increase in retail distribution of products, an active demand for goods and a general enlargement of the working force with some advance in the wages of more than half a million hands. At the same time they show that the rapid advance in prices has somewhat checked the buying of a few classes of products. In some parts of the country the outlook for fall trade is considered bright.

Comparison of prices for various iron products show an advance ranging from 7.2 per cent since February for wire nails to 7.1 per cent for anthracite pig and in all kinds averaging 22 per cent.

The demand and rise have come so suddenly that even while the first order for shipments of steel billets to Europe, given some time ago when prices were low, is being pronounced, the price here has advanced from $7 in April to $22.25 or about 31 per cent.

It is understood that the state department is not pleased with the apparent delay on the part of the French government in giving attention to the request made by this country for a full record of the proceedings in the Waller case, and that Mr. Eustis has been instructed to call the attention of the French authorities to the delay and to request a prompt response to our request.

Mr. Bray is also much concerned concerning his mother, Mrs. Waller, from whom he has received no word since he left Madagascar, notwithstanding he has sent numerous letters to her. Many of these letters have been sent under cover to other persons and their identity carefully concealed, but he has received no word in reply, so that he is unable to determine whether both his own letters and those of his mother have been intercepted or only her letters to him. In the former contingency she is as ignorant of his whereabouts and welfare as he is of her condition.

company and a Philadelphia detective have begun a search here for evidence of the missing children of Mrs. Pitzel, supposed to have been murdered by H. H. Holmes, now serving a term in a Pennsylvania prison for palming off a corpse on the Fidelity Mutual Insurance company and attempting to collect a premium granted to himself. There were three children, a boy and two girls. The first trace found of the children was in Cincinnati. It is certain that the girls were brought here.

ANOTHER COMPLAINT FROM WALLER.

The Ex-Consul Is Ill in Prison and Without Medical Attention.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Ex-Consul Waller, who is in prison near Marcellus, France, is ill and without medical supplies, and the state department of this government has been asked to interfere in his behalf to the extent of either providing him with the necessary supplies or asking the government of France to do so.

The news of Mr. Waller's illness was brought to this country through a letter to his stepson, Paul H. Bray, who was deported from Madagascar at the same time that Mr. Waller was sent out under arrest by the French government, and it is the first word that has been received from Waller by his son since he was separated from him at Tamatave.

Mr. Bray took the letter to Acting Secretary of State Uhl, who telegraphed Minister Eustis instructing him to give immediate attention to Mr. Waller's representation and to make inquiry as to the facts in the case.

It is understood that the state department is not pleased with the apparent delay on the part of the French government in giving attention to the request made by this country for a full record of the proceedings in the Waller case, and that Mr. Eustis has been instructed to call the attention of the French authorities to the delay and to request a prompt response to our request.

Mr. Bray is also much concerned concerning his mother, Mrs. Waller, from whom he has received no word since he left Madagascar, notwithstanding he has sent numerous letters to her. Many of these letters have been sent under cover to other persons and their identity carefully concealed, but he has received no word in reply, so that he is unable to determine whether both his own letters and those of his mother have been intercepted or only her letters to him. In the former contingency she is as ignorant of his whereabouts and welfare as he is of her condition.

Balloon Fatalities.

MILAN, Mo., July 6.—While inflating a balloon for an ascension, the guyrope to one of the heavy poles which held the balloon came loose, letting the pole fall, hitting Marian George on the head, mashing him to a pulp, killing him instantly. John Cunningham, an aeronaut, was instantly killed at Winigan in the eastern part of this county in the evening. He had made three successful ascensions during the day. The fourth time, when about 1,200 feet high, he cut loose, but the parachute failed to open and his body was mashed to a pulp.

Dockmen Strike.

ASHLAND, Wis., July 6.—The upper dockmen on the Wisconsin Central docks struck yesterday. The men have been receiving $1.35 per day and 14 1/2 cents per hour for overtime. They demanded $1.50 per day and 20 cents per hour for overtime. Five boats are now at the docks waiting for cargoes. A committee of strikers held a conference with a committee of the Chicago and Northwestern upper dockmen, and a strike of the latter is among the possibilities.

Treasury Deficit Growing.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The July disbursements of the government are always unusually heavy owing to large interest and pension payments, and treasury officials rarely expect the income to meet the expenditures that month. The receipts have been larger than expected so far this month, but the treasury deficit is already over $6,000,000 and probably will continue to grow until towards the middle of the month when expenditures become lighter.

Hovas' Recent Loss.

PARIS, July 6.—Additional advices received here from General Duchesne, the commander of the French troops in the island of Madagascar, say that the Hovas lost 231 killed in the repulse which they sustained after attacking the French troops at Zarazana, when the French captured 470 tents, the standard of the Queen of Madagascar, a number of pieces of artillery and a quantity of ammunition.

All Crops Injured but Corn.

GOLDEN CITY, Mo., July 6.—Heavy rain Friday puts a serious phase on the harvest question in this vicinity. It has rained every day for a week, and the wheat and oats in shock are moulding and sprouting badly, while uncut oats can not be reached with a machine owing to the extreme softness of the ground. Flax is beginning to suffer some, but corn was never finer.

Honolulu Sugar Shipped to New York.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The American ship Charmer, 1,797 tons register, arrived yesterday afternoon from Honolulu with a full cargo of sugar, consisting of 47,079 bags, or 2,918 tons. This is the second cargo of sugar brought to this port from Honolulu by a sailing vessel in several days. The Charmer made the run in 100 days, a very fair passage.

Houston, Tex., July 6.—Mother St.

Gabriel, founder and Mother Superior of the Convent of the Incarnate Word of this city, died yesterday at Galveston, aged 47. Her name was Mary Jane Dillon, born in Dublin.

MINERS ARE RIOTING

Trouble at Pocahontas Has Again Broke Out.

TROOPS ORDERED TO THE SCENE.

Scabs Compelled to Quit Work and No One Allowed to Leave the Trains Stopping There—Houses Burned and Other Depredations Committed—Troops Will Soon Be on the Scene.

PITTSBURG, July 6.—A special to The Dispatch from Charleston, W. Va., announces that Governor MacCorkle has ordered the Second regiment under arms in readiness to proceed to the Pocahontas coal fields. The miners, with Winchesters, forced 50 of the foreign laborers to quit work and leave the field.

Last night a band of armed strikers met the Norfolk and Western trains at Eckman and refused to allow any one to leave the coaches. United States Marshal Garden was notified and he has ordered all the deputy marshals in the state to mass at Huntington at once in order to protect the trains.

Another special from Huntington says: The situation in the Elkhorn coal region is very serious and Captain Adjutant Lyons of the Second regiment has ordered all companies to assemble and be ready to move to Elkhorn at a moment's notice.

MINERS RIOTING.

Houses Have Been Burned and Other Depredations Committed.

WHEELING, July 6.—A special just received is to the effect that the miners throughout the Elkhorn region are rioting, having burned houses and committed other depredations. The Elkhorn mining region is on the Norfolk and Western road, near the boundary of Virginia, and is on the West Virginia side of the line, at which the governor of Virginia has had troops for two months past.

The present trouble is supposed to be due to the long strike during which the strikers have been driven to desperation through hunger. Governor MacCorkle has been watching affairs closely and has matters well in hand. If necessary, troops will be on the ground within a few hours, and there is little doubt that they will be able to cope with the situation.

TROOPS ORDERED IN READINESS.

Miners Arming and Threaten to Drive Out the Scabs.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 6.—The situation in the Elkhorn and Bluefield region has become so threatening that Governor MacCorkle has ordered eight companies of state troops to be in readiness to march.

ALL HONOR TO KENTUCKY DEMOCRATS.

"The Kentucky Democrats did grandly," says the Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat. "They acted with judgment and discretion. They nominated the leader of the free silver wing of the party as their candidate for Governor, but when it came to building a platform for him to stand on they did it in no doubtful, uncertain way. As a sample take the following:

We affirm without qualification the principles and policies declared by the National Democratic platform of 1892, and declare that our present National Democratic administration is entitled to the thanks of the party for its honest, courageous and statesmanlike management of public affairs, and we express our undiminished confidence in the Democracy and patriotism of President Grover Cleveland and his distinguished co-adviser and Secretary, John G. Carlisle of Kentucky.

That resolution was adopted by a vote of 643 to 224. People who have read McLean's pewter money paper have been deceived. For weeks they were lead to believe that the Democrats of Kentucky were overwhelmingly for free silver at an impossible, illogical, and irrational ratio of 16 to 1, and that they would outlaw the administrations of Cleveland and Carlisle. The Democrats of Kentucky have shown themselves to be Democrats in the strictest sense of the word. They are for harmony, and, above all, for the Democratic party. They do not propose that after a century's growth the Democratic party shall wither and die, or that it shall become the victim of the highliners in politics who are willing for the almighty nickel to run cranky free-silver papers in the West and radical gold-bug papers in the East. All honor to the glorious Democracy of Kentucky."

LONG ON THE OUTLOOK.

The right man for Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee has been found. Listen how he talks:

We will win by the biggest majority of ten years, said Mr. Long enthusiastically. I think the ticket and platform is a combination that leaves no man an excuse for sulking or bolting the party; the Democratic forces will be thoroughly organized in every county in the State; the aggressive campaign that we will wage will bring out every Democrat on election day. The Republicans have been blowing and blustering about Kentucky being a Republican State, and we intend to show them a trick or two. Our organization this year will be the most thorough that we have ever had; in fact, we have never needed much of an organization in this State, but when November of 1895 rolls around we will show them in cold, stern ballots just how many good, loyal Democrats there are hidden away in Kentucky hills and valleys. With such men as Buckner, Blackburn, McCreary, Lindsay, Black, Stone, Brown, Bronston and Hardin, and a score of other younger men upon the stump, preaching the truths of Jeffersonian Democracy, the Republicans will need something stronger than their victories of last year to bolster up their courage.

BLACKBURN FOR GOLD.

It Is Said That He Will Abandon Free Silver Sophistries.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 2.—It was announced here to-day by Pat McDonald, of Frankfort, a close friend of Senator Blackburn, that Mr. Blackburn would make a speech next week avowing his support of the platform and the State ticket. Mr. Blackburn said in his speech at the convention that it could not make a platform or a ticket he would not support, but the entire surrender he is now contemplating was not understood.

The Senator will say that he bows to the will of the majority, just as Mr. Hardin did. Nevertheless it is now believed to be certain that he cannot go back to the Senate. The winner will most likely be ex-Governor Buckner, the first Kentuckian of prominence to declare for the gold standard, or else Congressman McCreary.

SPRINGDALE.

Mrs. Mary North and her daughter, Miss Vinie, who have been visiting at this place for the past week, returned Wednesday to their home at Cold Springs, Campbell County.

The Board of Trustees at this place met on Wednesday to elect teachers, but owing to some disagreement, and also to interference on the part of disinterested parties, there was no teacher elected.

The picnic or entertainment at Bethany on the 4th was one of the most pleasant and enjoyable meetings we have had in this neighborhood for many years. Everything passed off quietly, not a jar or even a frown to mar the pleasure of the occasion. Opening prayer by Elder T. P. Degman, and opening address of welcome by Elder White, of Tollesboro, with an appropriate address by Professor Park Kimball, of Adams County, Ohio, interspersed from first to last with music by a select choir, with Miss Flora Faris, of Cottageville, at the organ, after which all repaired to a beautiful grove near by and partook of one of the most sumptuous feasts ever spread before the epicurean—such dainties as the good housewives of Cabin Creek can prepare, to tickle the palate of the most fastidious. After spending two hours in the grove, eating, chatting and swinging, the crowd returned to the church and listened to some fine music by a select choir from Ohio and Springdale, with Miss Lucy Kimball at the organ, and short speeches by Elders Degman and White and Messrs. A. S. Cole, of Fears, Frazer Tully, of Cottageville, and C. P. Vawter, of Sprigdale. All went merry as a marriage bell.

MAPLE GROVE.

Miss Josie Laytham gave a delightful lawn party last Tuesday evening in honor of her guests Miss Ella Gordon, of Winchester, and Miss Lena McLellan, of Lewisburg. McCreary, Hefflin, Gray, Armstrong, Prather and Power, of Flemingsburg; Messrs. Blake and Sutherland, of Lewisburg; Allen, Hunter and Parry, of Washington and Dr. Matthews and Mr. Wood, of Maysville. Refreshments were served about 11:30, and not until a late hour did the joyous crowd bid each other a happy "good night."

THE NAVIES WERE EASY,

But They Say They Will Give the Locals a Hard Fight To-day.
Notes

Captain Bert Walker and his ball team hadn't recovered from their two games at Huntington on the Fourth and their night ride to this city when they faced the Maysvilles at the park yesterday morning, and the locals won with ease.

Wadsworth was in the box for Maysville, and the visitors were unable to connect with the ball. He let them down with four hits in the seven innings they were at the bat.

Jones pitched for the Navies, and the Maysvilles pounded him all over the field.

Navies.....	0 2 1 0 0 0 -3
Maysville.....	3 4 1 3 1 4 -16
Batters, Jones and Reitman; Wadsworth and Tenley. Base hits, Maysville 18, Navies 4. Umpire, Shelton.

GAME THIS AFTERNOON.

The Navies and Maysvilles will play again this afternoon at the new park. Wellner and Reitman will be the battery for the visitors, and Rieman and Tenley for Maysville. On their former visit here, the Navies defeated the locals twice, and with Wellner in the box this afternoon the game ought to prove an interesting one. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Go out and see the contest.

Sammy Leever pitched his first game for the Norwoods Thursday, and struck out twelve men. The team defeated the Woodwards, -6 to 3.

The Norwoods will be here next Tuesday for games that afternoon and Wednesday afternoon. Sammy Leever, the speedy ex-Maysville pitcher, is with the Norwoods. He is a great pitcher and the locals may have hard work to win.

Van Winkle was called to his home at Danville Thursday evening. He will know in a day or two whether he will be able to play any more with the Maysvilles this year. His parents want him to spend the summer with them at Duluth and San Francisco.

The Commercial Gazette says the Maysvilles were pretty lucky to get one game from the Shamrocks. Well, the opinion of some of those who saw the games is that the Shamrocks were extremely fortunate to get one game from the Maysvilles. With the exception of one inning in each game, the Maysville boys played all round the Shamrocks.

An unfortunate accident occurred in the sixth inning of the last game with the Shamrocks Thursday. Hellman started to steal second. Wetterer, the Shamrock's fast short stop, ran in to cover the bag. He blocked the base, and in the collision that followed, his left collarbone was broken. Hellman almost turned a summersault, and got a hard jolt, but fortunately escaped uninjured. The accident will put Wetterer out of the business for a month or so. He had just signed a day or so before with the Nashvilles.

OMAHA MYSTERY EXPLAINED.

OMAHA, July 6.—The trunk murder mystery, which has disturbed all Omaha since Tuesday, was cleared up last night when the frightfully mutilated body of the victim, John E. Seljan, was found in the river, and the prisoners first arrested, Mate Mikan and wife, Anton Beckovitch, John Urban and John Drubnitz, were formally charged with murder. The prisoners still refuse to talk, but the police expect a confession.

The police struck a trail of blood sufficient to be detected, and followed it below the city, where the body had been cast into the river. It was found in an eddy a short distance below the scene. The throat was cut from ear to ear, the head was mashed as with an ax and other parts of the body were frightfully lacerated. It is now believed the man was surrounded by the murderers and, resisting, was slowly hacked to pieces.

The first tangible clew to the disposition of Seljan's body was obtained yesterday morning. A Bohemian lad, who is employed as porter at a downtown hotel, and who has occasionally acted as interpreter for the police, claimed to have discovered evidence that the body was carried toward the river. He came to the police station at noon with the information that he had discovered blood stains on the sidewalk at Thirteenth and Pierce streets, and also that on going to a vacant lot in the vicinity of Creighton college he had seen blood.

He had chipped several pieces of blood-stained planks off, which he brought with him as evidence of his discovery. Detectives were despatched and several hours later the body was found. Chief White's detectives have worked day and night on the case ever since the first report was received. None of them have slept more than four or five hours a day.

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE.

An Attempt Made to Blow Up a Residence and Church.

COLUMBUS, O., July 6.—A dastardly attempt was made to blow up the residence of Jerry P. Bliss, director of public improvements, and a small frame church adjoining, about 11:30 last night. A bomb was thrown in the porch of the residence and another into the church.

Luckily the bombs did not do the work expected, as the church was only partially wrecked and the residence slightly damaged, a small pile of bricks being blown out of one corner of the latter. The bomb thrower evidently not only intended to destroy the house but the lives of the occupants as well. There is no clew to the perpetrator of the deed.

ITALIANS STILL RIOTING.

Their Wages Not Yet Paid and More Serious Trouble Is Looked For.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., July 6.—The Italian laborers at Rockport, Ind., are still rioting and at one time piled brush under the bridges and trestles to burn them. Father Brundt of St. Henry's has partially quieted them by promising them transportation to Chicago, and the citizens have petitioned the county commissioners to make an allowance of $600, the amount necessary to transport them.

The sheriff and citizen deputies are still on guard ready to fire at any moment. Should the county refuse them transportation, serious trouble is sure to follow. The railroad contractors who owe them money have fled. It looks as if the Chicago, Indianapolis and Rockport road would not be completed.

Fraud Exposed.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Fraud orders have been issued refusing the use of the mails to J. C. Battendorf of Grand Rapids and to Charles Allen, alias T. Radway, alias D. Price of New York and Weston, W. Va. Battendorf advertised that if any person will send him a lock of hair and $1 he will diagnose their illness clairvoyantly and prescribe for and cure them. He has become very wealthy through this scheme. He has been arrested, and so has Allen, who has been sending out green goods circulars.

Copper and Iron Mill Burned.

SILVER CITY, N. M., July 6.—News has just reached here of the burning of the Santa Rita copper and iron mill, 18 miles from this city. The machinery in the building was the finest in New Mexico, and the mill was one of the best equipped in the west. It is supposed the fire was caused by a toy balloon. The property was worth $100,000 and is a total loss. There is no insurance.

Domestic Trouble and Double Tragedy.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 6.—James M. Ryan, 35 years old, a blacksmith, shot and killed his wife yesterday afternoon and then killed himself. Domestic trouble was the cause. She was preparing to go to her mother's home at Bloomington, Ills. After shooting her Ryan threw her down stairs to the sidewalk. She died in a few minutes.

Tough Shot by an Officer.

BURLINGTON, Ia., July 6.—The local thugs fired upon Chief of Police Low last night and were beating him over the head with their empty guns when an officer shot one named Connelly through the back, inflicting a fatal wound. The other escaped but a posse is on his trail.

JAPAN'S GREAT FAIR.

THE BIG EXPOSITION NOW BEING HELD AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

It Is to Be a Sort of Millennial Celebration This Year—Useful Hints to Intending Visitors to the Land of the Rising Sun.

All eyes are now focused on Japan it may interest such as may be contemplating a visit to the land of ancient and modern marvel to know that no more opportune time can be selected than the coming early summer.

The visitor may then have an opportunity of seeing the conquerors of China returning with their laurels, and they will surely get the worth of their money out of the great Kioto exposition, which opened on April 1 and will continue for three months.

Under a decree a national fair is held in Japan every four years. This year it is to be held in Kioto, the ancient capital and in itself the most thorough of Japanese exhibits.

The exposition is to be supplemented by a sort of millennial celebration. To be exact the eleventh hundred anniversary of the accession of the present dynasty is to be marked by a military exhibit, fêtes, carnivals, etc., to which zest will be given by the triumph of arms in China.

The exposition proper will epitomize the best of things Japanese. In the matter of art this show is expected to eclipse all previous records.

Kioto is a city of temples, both Buddhist and Shinto, so that one may see all that is worth seeing in Japan, from ceramics to Geisha girls.

The buildings for the great fair are said to be splendid specimens of Japanese architecture, and the hotels of the ancient city are warranted to be ample for the care of all foreign visitors.

Kioto, being the very heart and soul of old Japan, is regarded as the most interesting and fascinating city in the empire. The Higashi Hangwanji temple is the largest in Japan. It covers more than 52,000 square feet.

The Chionin temple has a bronze bell 18 feet high, which is worth traveling some distance to hear and see. Then there are the temples Dai Butsu and Kionidzu of the Buddhists and the great Shinto shrine of Gion, all worth seeing.

All Japan will be raked for antique arms and armor for the military exhibit. The bazaars will be countless, and those who are collecting Japanese art and curios will find Kioto this summer a veritable paradise. It has been for ages a recognized art center.—Colonel John A. Cokerill in New York Herald.

Women "Sandwich Men."

Women "sandwich men" are an innovation. The walking sign line on Twenty-third street, New York, has two women parading side by side, each peculiarly garbed and each bearing the regulation signboard, one bearing the legend, "I use polish," the other silently remarking, "I use an imitation." The garments of the first mentioned were trimmed with burnished metal bangles, while the fringe on the latter's attire was dingy and corroded. They were attired very much like Salvation Army lasses, except that their faces were heavily veiled. The coming woman is evidently going to stop at nothing to earn an honest living.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Maurice Jokai on Peace.

Maurice Jokai, the Hungarian novelist, has refused the presidency of the Hungarian branch of the Peace society. He says: "I will deceive no one. I am prepared, if the powers of Europe agree to disarm, to pay three times the taxes I have paid up to the present. I will devote all my facilities to the great cause, but if my fatherland, my freedom, my nation, my king, are attacked by any one then I know no theories. I will take my gray head where it must fall in the noble cause."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

The Typewriter Industry.

From the patent office at Washington comes the report that in the 11 years since the typewriting machine was first put on the market the sales have amounted to nearly $30,000,000. This means an enormous industry not only in the manufacture and sale of the machines, but in their manipulation in the offices where they are used.—New York Post.

An Unknown Quantity.

Some visionary fellow in Chicago is talking about establishing a home for unmarried women over 40 years of age. We should like to know where he will find the women to occupy it. We never met with any such.—Wisconsin State Journal.

Shot For a Bed Cover.

A Chicago man shot his bedfellow to death because the latter attempted to pull too much of the cover. Attorneys for the defense will doubtless attempt to show that the landlord is responsible for the crime.—Galveston News.

Spain Should Examine Her Officers.

The Spanish navy might hold an examination among its officers as to myopia and color blindness, so as to insure a proper discrimination among foreign flags.—Washington Star.

We All Have It.

Japan can scare the world by demanding an indemnity in gold and insisting on the actual coin. Gold grabbing is the disease of the century.—St. Louis Republic.

The Writing on the Wall.

(Exchange.)

Aminadab Wilks was a milkman, also the Superintendent of a Sunday school. On one occasion he was talking to his boys about Belshazzar's feast and the handwriting on the wall. Noticing some boys who were not paying attention, he asked them to tell him who placed the writing on the wall. One little boy put his hand up.

"Well, who was it, Tommy?"

"Please sir, it was Harry Barker."

"Indeed?" said the Superintendent; what did he write?"

To his surprise, the boy went to the wall, and read out to the delight of the whole school the following verse:

"Our milkman's name is Aminadab Wilks, He sits on a blanket his cows to milk; He waters his milk three times a day Then comes to school to sing and pray."
